

Your invitation to
Georgia Chamber Music Retreat
June 2-4, 2017

University of North Georgia, Dahlonega, GA

You are invited to the 15th annual Georgia Chamber Music Retreat on the beautiful University of North Georgia campus in scenic mountain country in Georgia. From Friday evening until Sunday afternoon, about 50 musicians gather for a spring weekend of chamber music, food, and fun. Please join us this year.

The weekend begins with dinner on Friday, June 2nd and ends on Sunday afternoon, June 4th, 2017. Once you have arrived, you are expected to stay for the entire weekend. During the weekend, our main focus is on sight-reading music in small chamber ensembles. This is not a workshop: No instruction is offered and practicing is highly discouraged. ☺ We play for the joy of making music together and to get away from teaching, gigging, or simply leading our lives. The attendees are usually a mix of amateur and professional musicians and teachers.

University of North Georgia is an immaculately kept and scenic military school nestled in the Northwest Georgia mountains in the heart of Dahlonega, Georgia. Dahlonega is a quaint mountain town filled with shops, theaters, and good food. The area is famous for its natural beauty, hiking trails, and waterfalls.

Bring your instrument(s), casual clothes, recreational equipment (bicycles, etc.) and any chamber music you have access to (don't worry if it is not for your instrument). To insure that we have an appropriate mix of instruments, only the first people who accept the invitation will be able to attend. Those who attended last year get the first opportunity to return, so you may be placed on a waiting list until January 15th, when previous attendees must decide. Many sections fill quickly. Be sure to let us know as soon as possible whether or not you can come. When a spot is available, we will ask for a deposit to hold it.

We continue to keep the cost of the retreat low to make it more affordable, especially for practicing musicians who might not otherwise afford to get away. The cost of the weekend is a $185 per person double occupancy (or $235 per person single occupancy), which includes two nights plus six meals. See Accommodations on the next page. Reservations for room assignments will be made on a first-come, first-served basis. If you accept this invitation, please send a $35 deposit to the address below before Monday, March 6, 2017. The advance reservation fee is non-refundable. Checks should be made payable to Peter Hildebrandt (but do indicate on the check that it is for the Georgia Chamber Music Retreat). Your cancelled check is your receipt. The remainder of your cost for the weekend is due three weeks prior to the event (Friday, May 12th). No profit is made on the retreat.

We hope you will accept this invitation and join us this spring. For those who accept, further information and directions will be sent to you in late April.

We look forward to your response!
